VI. Profiling or automated decision-making

Profiling should be understood as any form of automated processing of personal data consisting of its use to evaluate certain personal aspects relating to a natural person, in particular to analyze or predict aspects concerning that natural person's performance at work, economic situation, health, personal preferences, interests, reliability, behavior, location or movements.

To the extent necessary for entering into, or performance of an agreement the Bank or for the Bank's compliance with a legal obligation, Your personal data may be processed by automated means, which may be related with automated decision-making, including profiling, which could produce legal effects concerning You or similarly significantly affects. Such cases shall occur in following situations:

1. Performing money laundering and terrorist financing risk analysis in accordance with the AML Act:
 - a) Your personal data shall be used in „Know you Client” process, which takes place on stage of establishing relation, and after that, during regular reviews. To the extent of such profiling, i.a. on basis of circumstances, such as client type, business relations type, types of products, transaction history, geographic risk and verification if the client is a politically exposed person (PEP) in the meaning of the AML Act and whether client has previously showed high-risk activity (e.g. previously reported transactions to GIIF), it is determined or amended a level of risk for such client. If You will be classified as high-risk person in result of such profiling, the Bank reserves its right to contact You in order to collect additional information. Moreover, in result of such classification on stage of establishing relations it may come to refusal of entering into an agreement with You;
 - b) Your personal data shall be subject to profiling for purposes of identification of eventual cases of money laundering or terrorist financing in accordance with the AML Act. Different factors are considered within such profiling: i.a. data concerning transaction, citizenship, client type, business relations type, geographic area, as well as previous high-risk activity. In the result of such profiling, behavior, which is potentially incompliant with the AML Act in scope of money laundering or terrorist financing, is identified. Eventual determination of justified suspicion of money laundering or terrorist financing results in notifying such transaction to relevant state authorities or possibility of termination of an agreement. In the result of such determination it may also come to refusal of entering into next contract with You in the future and/or refusal of expanding actual relation for next products, which are offered by the Bank.
2. In reference to agreements of credit character:
 - a) Conducting evaluation of Your creditworthiness and/or credit risk analysis. Evaluation of credit- and trustworthiness is conducted on basis of data provided by You in application for concluding an agreement with the Bank and information obtained from BIK and business information offices. The scope of used data covers information regarding Your current liabilities and information regarding service history of other products and services, including data contained in databases of BIK and of business information offices. In process of evaluation of credit- and trustworthiness, there are used statistic models, in result of which Your creditworthiness and credit trustworthiness for entering into obligations with the Bank is indicated. In case, when such process will prove lack of insufficient credit- and trustworthiness to enter into specific obligation, the Bank will refuse to grant You with a credit product;

- b) Your personal data, i.e. for example relevantly existing to date credit history, demographic data, transactions history, as well as existing to date evaluation of Your credit- and trustworthiness might be profiled within processes of credit risk and the bank's capital management, in accordance with obligation from CRR Regulation, mentioned above. Such profiling will not bring any consequences for You;
 - c) it is possible to make automated decision towards You on lowering of credit limit, in case when Your creditworthiness has deteriorate. Deterioration of creditworthiness might be identified by the Bank only in result of evaluation of objective information, i.e. on basis of information on number, amount and quality of current service of credit products and other services, where these information are obtained from the Bank Register database (MIG-BR), BIK databases and from the Bank's systems;
 - d) in justified cases, i.e. in case of lack, despite call, of payment of due liabilities resulting from an agreement, the Bank in automated means makes a decision to terminate an agreement;
 - e) in justified cases in reference to due liabilities of the Bank resulting from agreements of credit character, after ineffective process of recovery, the Bank in automated means makes a decision on selling such liabilities.
3. Additionally, in scope of exercising an agreement on credit card, in accordance with conditions of the agreement concluded with the Bank:
- a) it might be issued towards You an automated decision on non-renewing an agreement by the Bank. Basic criteria for making such decision is prolonged period (at least 24 months) of non-using Your credit card;
 - b) it is possible to make towards You an automated decision on refusal of executing a transaction. Such decision shall be made in result of exceeding credit limit granted by the agreement or in case of risen arrears on credit card account.
4. In justified cases, it is possible to make an automated decision towards You on refusal of executing payment transaction in case of suspecting that it has been initiated by an unauthorized person. Identification of such cases takes place on basis of profiling stipulated under criteria related with certain aspects of Your transactions, including transaction amount, place of initializing a transaction, means of authorization.
5. In reference to agreements on investment services – to the extent related with investigating level of knowledge and experience, as well as risk profile analysis (in accordance with the Act of 29 July 2005 on trading in financial instruments), information obtained in the form (i.a. education, investing experience, knowledge on financial instruments, age, financial situation and investing targets) will be used for evaluation of Your knowledge and experience in field of investing on financial market, Your financial situation and investing targets, i.e. in order to create Your investing profile. Moreover, such information will be used for correct evaluation of specified target market of end clients within specified category of the bank's clients. The Bank might refuse entering into an agreement in case of determining lack of sufficient knowledge on character of service covered by the agreement, which You intend to conclude.
6. For marketing purposes, referred to in p. II.2.a) above, Your personal data (for example relevant existing to date credit history, demographic data, transaction history, as well as existing to date evaluation of Your creditworthiness) might be used for profiling in order to address to You personalized offer. Not taking advantage of such offer shall not bring any negative consequences for You.
